

How to Use This Notebook

Christians – Christ followers – are called to be seekers. Throughout Scripture we are promised that if we seek the Lord we will find Him.

In order to help our congregation draw into deeper and more effective relationships with the Lord, the Elders and Implementation Team leaders are recommending that everyone in the congregation read through the New Testament together during 2010. A section of the New Testament would be read weekly, and of course, you may read more some days and less on others. We encourage you to attempt to have a weekly discussion with others who are also reading through the New Testament this year to share insights and questions. We encourage you to do what works best for you as you develop the habit of reading the Bible daily.

By using this journal and jotting down a few notes as you read, you will be able to keep track of the wonderful things that you have learned as you study the Scriptures and grow in your relationship with God. The daily note pages are designed so you can record the key Scripture verse that spoke to you during your reading. Space is provided for you to record your observations, your personal application and a prayer. Your notes can also help you to better understand yourself and to see God working in all the circumstances of your life.

This notebook is very similar to one that is being used successfully by other congregations. We hope it is designed in such a way that you can tailor it to your own needs as you study God's Word, listen to sermons, and participate in Bible studies.

Finally, we pray that you will "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ". 2 Peter 3:18
